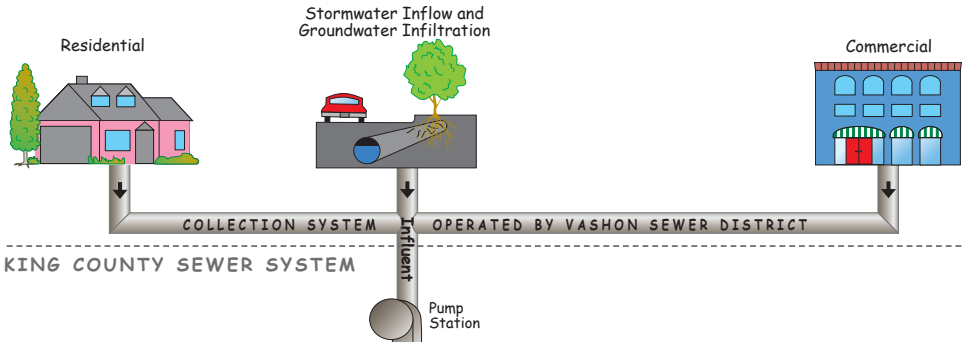
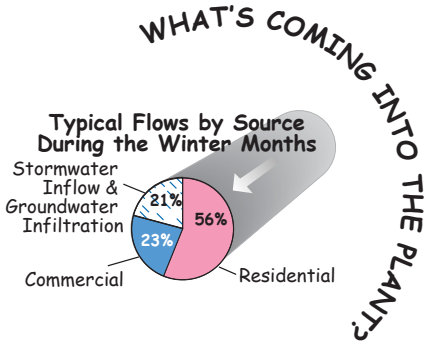
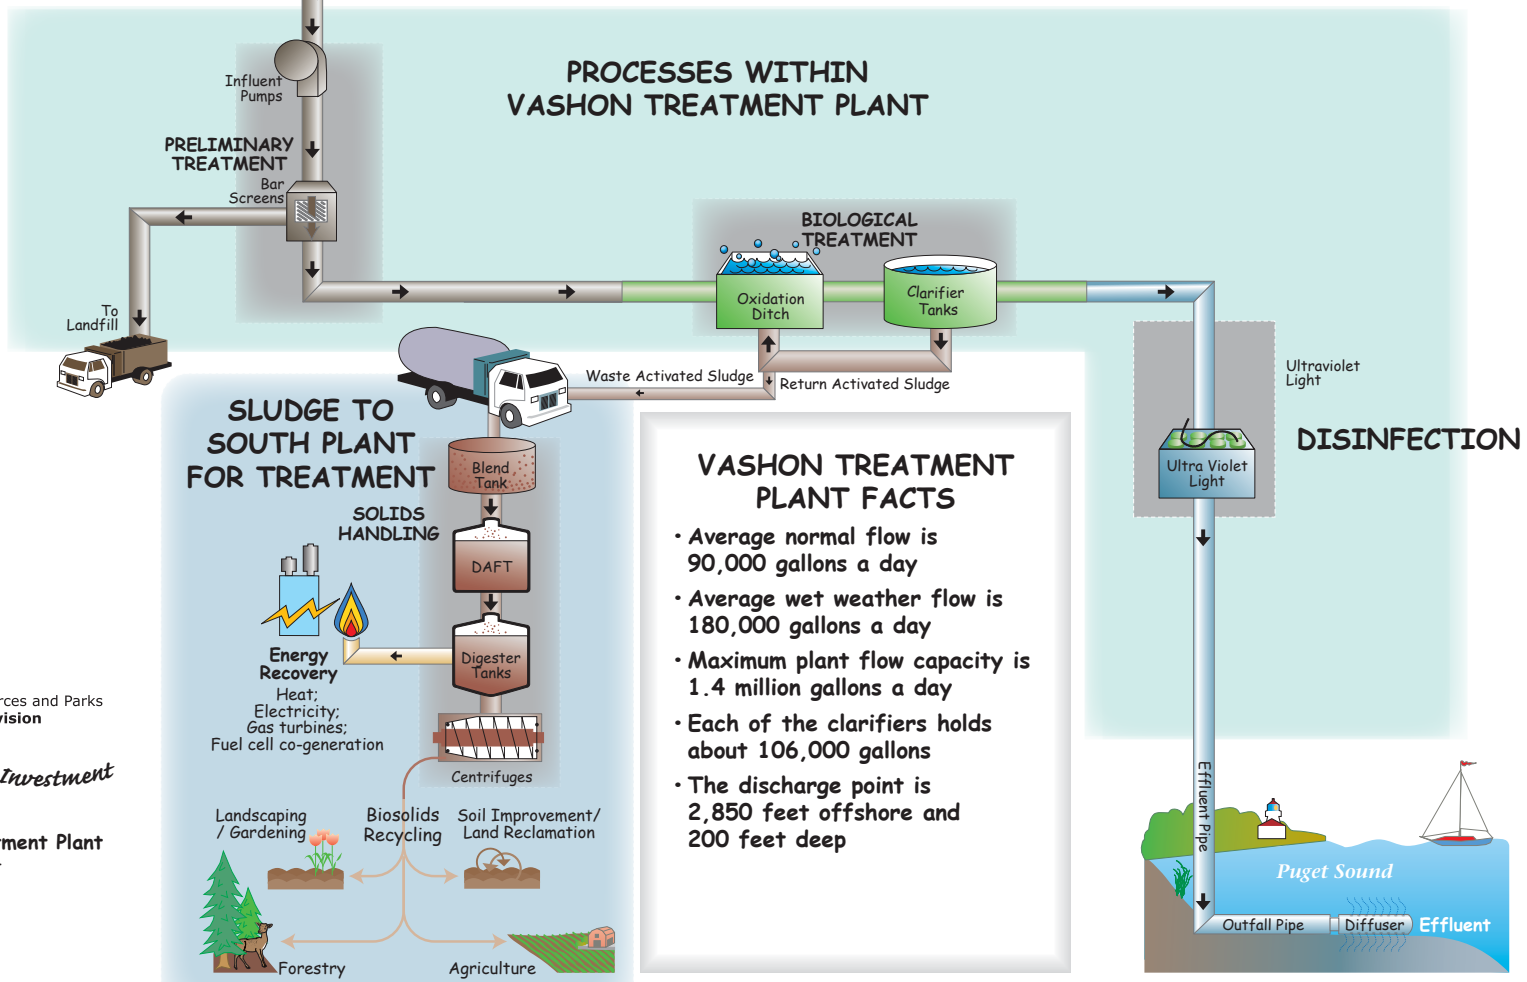
Wastewater Treatment Process

How is wastewater treated at King County's Vashon Treatment Plant?







VASHON TREATMENT PLANT FACTS

- Average normal flow is 90,000 gallons a day
- Average wet weather flow is 180,000 gallons a day
- Maximum plant flow capacity is 1.4 million gallons a day
- Each of the clarifiers holds about 106,000 gallons
- The discharge point is 2,850 feet offshore and 200 feet deep

King County
Department of Natural Resources and Parks
Wastewater Treatment Division

Clean Water - A Sound Investment

Vashon Wastewater Treatment Plant
9615 SW 171st St
Vashon, WA
206-463-7318

0802processVASHON.ai WGC. mdex.sk